Re: CFTC v. Traders Global Group Incorporated, et al., Case No. 3:23-cv-11808-ZNQ-TJB
(D.N.J.)

Counsel:

We write on behalf of our clients Traders Global Group Incorporated, a New Jersey corporation doing business as “My Forex Funds,” Traders Global Group Incorporated, a Canadian business organization, and Mr. Murtuza Kazmi (collectively, “Defendants”) to notify you of action necessary to preserve the status quo and to protect the value of Defendants’ assets. Specifically, the Temporary Receiver is obligated to settle outstanding debts with business vendors of My Forex Funds in order to avoid interest and other claims accruing against the estate.

As you are aware, it is the Temporary Receiver’s duty to preserve the value of Defendants’ assets and to perform all acts necessary to do so. As a direct result of the SRO shutting down Defendants’ business and freezing Defendants’ assets, My Forex Funds has been unable to pay balances due to its business vendors. Many substantial vendor invoices are past due. Allowing these invoices to go unpaid would be a dereliction of the Temporary Receiver’s duty to preserve the value of Defendants’ assets because non-payment will result in the accrual of interest. Further, to the extent certain vendors, such as MetaQuotes, hold data and other informational assets related to My Forex Funds, non-payment of these invoices could result in the vendor destroying or
